

Prayer Flare, April 2022

Hi everyone!

I cannot thank you enough for your willingness to pray for me. You will be ESSENTIAL in moving this ministry forward.

If you know of anyone else who you trust who also might also want to pray, feel free to forward this email.

I have a several speaking opportunities upcoming in May and one has the potential to bring in 200-300 people. I also have a booksigning in Newberg, OR on 5/6 at Chapters Bookstore as part of an ArtWalk.

HERE IS THE COOL STORY: I had emailed our local newspapers about "Innocent Lives" several times with no response. Then I attended a gathering our neighbors gave and asked someone there who worked for the newspaper for her suggestion. She directed me to a co-worker, who told me to email a new reporter. When I looked at the website the next day, I learned that the co-worker was the Publisher/Boss of all the West Side newspapers.

Still, not much happened.

However, I then met with that reporter as an abuse survivor and shared with him to help with an article about our local Family Justice Center. We had a great hour talk, he petted my dog a lot, and I gave him a copy of the book. I asked him if it was possible to do a story on it and he said the same line I had already heard: "we don't really have room to feature local authors..."

About 3 hours later, he sent a text: "I would LOVE to feature your book!" LOL!

That is how our God works.

This article will feature the book, the booksigning and the speaking engagement in McMinnville that is open to the public on May 12th. PLEASE PRAY that the editor will approve the story and that it will bring more ladies to this event to hear an important story and message.

This will be a different type of event than my usual. It will be fully focused on my story/testimony vs any teaching and will include many events in my life from my childhood on. I don't like to "read" as I am speaking but this one will require some of that. So your prayers for that and that I will have time to practice and even memorize it would be much appreciated.

Thank you all!

If you so desire, you can keep up with my speaking and appearance schedule at this link.

Love, Julie

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your request to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
